David Duane Ingram
Applicant.

Case No. 08A000465

Serve at:

2710 Bent Oak Court
Platte City, Missouri 64078

REFUSAL TO RENEW BAIL BOND AGENT LICENSE

On December 16, 2008, Dale Hardy Roberts, Special Investigations Legal Counsel for the Division of Consumer Affairs, submitted a petition to the Director alleging cause to refuse to renew the Bail Bond Agent license of the above named applicant. After reviewing the petition and the investigative report, the Director issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law and summary order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Applicant is a Missouri resident with an address of 2710 Bent Oak Court, Platte City, Missouri 64078.
2. On or about May 28, 2008, Applicant filed a Missouri Uniform Renewal Application for Bail Bond or Surety Recovery Agent License with the Department seeking the renewal of Applicant's Bail Bond Agent license.
3. Question B of Part III of the Application asks:

Have you ever been adjudicated, convicted, pled or found guilty of any misdemeanor or felony or currently have pending misdemeanor or felony charges filed against you? Applicants are required to report all criminal cases whether or not a sentence has been imposed, a suspended imposition of sentence has been entered or the applicant has pled nolo contendere (No contest)... (Emphasis added.)

4. Applicant answered "No" to this question.
5. A certified copy of the court records shows Ingram entered a plea of "guilty" to the charge of a Class C Felony for possession of a controlled substance and on November 7, 1996, the court determined that the plea was made voluntarily, knowingly and intelligently and that there was a factual basis for the defendant's plea.
6. The Applicant's plea of guilty to a felony offense occurred within 15 years immediately prior to submitting the application.
7. Applicant failed to disclose the guilty plea to a felony and, instead, fraudulently claimed no conviction or suspended imposition of sentence.
8. All of the competent and substantial evidence within the investigative record has been considered. In making this decision on behalf of the Department, I have considered the positions and arguments of all of the parties. Failure to specifically address a piece of evidence, a position, an allegation or any argument of any party does not indicate there was a failure to consider relevant evidence, but indicates rather that the omitted material was not dispositive of this decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

9. Section 374.715, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 2007) provides, in part:

Each application shall be accompanied by proof satisfactory to the department that the applicant...meets the qualifications for surety on bail bonds as provided by supreme court rule.

10. Supreme Court Rule 33.17 provides, in part:

A person shall not be accepted as a surety on any bail bond unless the person:
(c) Has not, within the past 15 years, been found guilty of or pleaded guilty ... to:

(1) Any felony of this state or the United States;

11. Section 374.750, RSMo (2000) provides:

The department may refuse to issue or renew any license required pursuant to sections 374.700 to 374.775 for any one or any combination of causes stated in section 374.755.

12. Section 374.755.1, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 2007) provides, in part:

The department may cause a complaint to be filed ...for any one or any combination of the following causes: .....

(2) Final adjudication or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere within the past fifteen years in a criminal prosecution under any state...law for a felony...whether or not a sentence is imposed, prior to issuance of license date;

(3) Use of fraud, deception, misrepresentation or bribery in securing any license or in obtaining permission to take any examination required pursuant to sections 374.695 to 374.775;

(6) Violation of any provision of or any obligation imposed by the laws of this state, department rules and regulations, or aiding or abetting other persons to violate such laws, orders, rules or regulations, or subpoenas;

13. Applicant was found guilty of a felony within the 15 years prior to the date of the Application for renewal of a Bail Bond Agent license, which prevents applicant from meeting the qualifications for surety on bail bonds as provided by Supreme Court Rule 33.17(f), thus a disqualification from obtaining a Bail Bond Agent license under § 374.715, RSMo (Cum. Supp. 2007).

14. Applicant failed to disclose a suspended imposition of sentence and, instead, fraudulently claimed no conviction or suspended imposition of sentence. Applicant thereby made use of a misrepresentation or deception in an attempt to secure a bail bond agent license under 374.755.1(3), RSMo.

15. The plain meaning of 374.755.1 RSMo (Cum. Supp. 2007) includes both persons convicted as well as persons who entered a plea of guilty.
16. Interpreting a provision in a similar Missouri statute, the Western District Court of Appeals agreed that "if the legislature intended to enable persons who plead guilty to a crime and receive a suspended imposition of sentence to be granted a permit to acquire a concealable firearm, the legislature would not have included the "pled guilty" language in Section 571.090.1(2)." The Court held that the mere plea of guilty to the designated offense would prevent the applicant from qualifying for a license. Carr v. Sheriff of Clay County, 210 S.W.3d 414 (Mo.App. W.D. Nov 21, 2006) rehearing denied (Jan 30, 2007).
17. A bail bond agent has quasi-police powers including the authority to take custody of a defendant released on bail by the courts. Honesty, candor and respect for the judicial system are critical to this quasi-law enforcement function.
18. If, as the Director, I were to exercise my discretion in this matter, I would refuse the application based upon the fraudulent concealment of a criminal record. However, my discretion in this matter is superseded by the absolute prohibition against licensing an applicant with a criminal offense within the past 15 years.
19. The denial of this application to renew a Bail Bond Agent license is mandatory.
20. This order is in the public interest.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the renewal of the bail bond agent license of the Applicant is hereby summarily REFUSED.

SO ORDERED.

WITNESS MY HAND THIS 19th DAY OF December, 2008.
